To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as a reference for Mr. Robert Stewart. Mr. Stewart was a student of mine in the Software Development (CSD) degree completion program from January 2024 until March 2025. During that time, Mr. Stewart completed all course work in a professional manner, displayed a willingness to go above and beyond stated requirements, was a responsible participant in group projects, and consistently demonstrated a proficiency in communication skills.

I believe Mr. Stewart will continue to perform at a high standard and will quickly become an asset in any position he chooses. If you have any questions, or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards,
